Members of the St. John Paul II Catholic elementary school senior boys' soccer team participated in the 2015 Parade of Champions at last weekend's Toronto FC home game to commemorate their success last season.

Thirteen St. John Paul players attended the Major League Soccer match and were invited to walk across the BMO Field pitch with several rep teams during pre-game ceremonies. St. John Paul was the only elementary school to participate.

Last season, the team won four tournament championships and extended its unbeaten streak to 46 games.

"After being the head coach here for the last four years, there have definitely been some amazing memories," said St. John Paul coach Matthew Aslett. "I look forward to hopefully continuing our pursuit for excellent next season, with more than half of our senior squad returning."

Members of St. John Paul's senior team last year were Nicolas Lopac, Matthew Zanatta, Lukas Del Vecchio, Charlie Francuz, Mauro Lulli, Lucas Russo, Jason Soares, Manuel Bustamante, Ethan Ceolin, Jacob Dadufalza, Matthew De Michele, Bryan Soares, Matthew Sostaric, Majd Abboud, Zach Aldridge, Daniel Bustamante, Santino D'Angelo, Christian McGowan, Daniel Montus, Ante Salapic and Josh Spano. Anthony Ceelen and Domenico Grande managed the team.
